I'm pretty sure the first story that I ever wrote was in 4th grade when I wrote a story about my first time moving to New Jersey.

I usually do my best writing at home, when I'm comfortable in bed. Because then I won't have to move, and I get to be creative.

I don't have any ideas right now. They usually just pop up into my head when I get a main purpose for writing.

I'm in advanced art. I can draw, paint, AND sketch! I like to create collages because they are the easiest, and they turn out amazing.
