

Emotion Poems

Sadness

Sadness is as grey as a stormy night

It happens when I lose a friend

It sounds like my mother crying

Hurt

Hurt is Red as the pain it comes from

Hurt happens when you get destroyed by many fists

Hurt sounds like the cry of a whale when it's in pain

Fear

Fear is as gray as the moon. As dark as a creeping shadow.

It happens when the room is dark and not a sound to be heard except where the wind whistles a melody.

It sounds like hearing creeks in the floor or a midnight howl.
