What are your favorite types of stories to write?
Fantasy, scripts, graphic novels
What are your favorite types of books to read?
Graphic novels

Who is your favorite author? What do you like most about this author?
I love Olivia Snowe. I love the way she draws the panels on pages describing what's going on along with rewriting fairy tales into a little more interesting.

What is your favorite book? Have any books ever inspired you to be a writer?
My favorite book(s) is Heartstopper. Sometimes in ELA, we read scripts as characters along with some stories with a more interesting plot.

What was the most recent book you read?
I recently read The Outsiders and finished it. It had interesting characters and their stories behind it.

How long have you been creative writing? When did you first realize you enjoyed writing?
I have been doing creative writing ever since 7th grade. I see other inspired artists on the internet and thought it would be better to try something new such as this.

What was the first story you ever wrote? What was it about?
I first wrote my story, "The Vampire and the Groom." It was about two vampires that got separated over time ever since they hit age 8. Chaotic backstories behind characters that happened to be in a tragedy into a killing nightmare.

Where do you usually do your best writing? Describe the place where you usually do your writing.
I usually do my writing at home when I get bored of doing the same things all over again like a cycle. It helps me focus while at school is the opposite, it makes me distracted during schoolwork.

Do you have an idea for a story right now? What is it?
I have an idea about a sci-fi story that's in the progress coming soon. I was thinking about an alarm apocalypse that happens in an international job.

Do you also draw, paint, or sketch? What kinds of artwork do you like to do?
I sketch and draw but not so good or perfect at painting. I like sketching any part of the body before tracing with the outline on it.
