What are your favorite types of stories to write?

I love to write science fiction mixed with mythological elements from different cultures, fantasy, and short story mysteries.

What are your favorite types of books to read?

Realistic fiction, Speculative Fiction, Fantasy, Mysteries, Sci-fi, graphic novels, and action stories.

Who is your favorite author? What do you like most about this author?

My favorite author is Rick Riordan. His stories are packed with action and speculative elements which make it feel like a roller coaster with a lot of twists and turns. Some of the characters he writes are easily relatable to me, making me interested in his books.

What is your favorite book? Have any books ever inspired you to be a writer?

I do not have a favorite book because I like all of the books I read. My favorite book series on the other hand are Aru Shah and Percy Jackson. Aru Shah inspired me to be a writer because it included my beliefs in it and helped me make a deep bond in creative writing.

What was the most recent book you read?

The book that I am currently reading is called, "Princess Academy: The Forgotten Sisters" by Shannon Hale. The book I just finished was called, "Princess Academy: The Palace of Stone" also by Shannon Hale.

How long have you been creative writing? When did you first realize you enjoyed writing?

I have been creative writing since I was in 3rd grade. The first time I realized I liked to creatively write was when I read my first "Kingdom of Fantasy" series in Geronimo Stilton. The twists and turns in the story inspired me to write stories.

What was the first story you ever wrote? What was it about?

The first story I ever wrote was called, "The Mystery Solvers" and it was a picture book. The first book I wrote without pictures was called, "Scarlett Suvillian: Journey to the Maya Civilization".

Where do you usually do your best writing? Describe the place where you usually do your writing.

I usually do my writing on my desk in the bedroom or anywhere where my Chromebook will not heat up. I brainstorm in random places around my house and sometimes in school when I have time because good ideas come from the environment around me.

Do you have an idea for a story right now? What is it?

I do not have an idea for a story right now but I am working on a story.

Do you also draw, paint, or sketch? What kinds of artwork do you like to do?

I normally prefer to paint and sing. Painting helps me to relax and singing helps lift my mood.
